In a recent letter I had from Mrs. Julius Ochs Adler (he was Vice President of the NEW YORK TIMES and both Mr. and Mrs Adler were old friends of mine), she writes as follows about [redacted] "I hope I haven't presumed but I have asked [redacted] to send you her "dossier" as I feel she is quite an exceptional and very bright human being. She is an extremely loyal and patriotic woman whose services might be of use to your Agency or the State Department. She is a widow and free to (go) anywhere."
